Student Acknowledgment

I understand that I am ultimately financially responsible for my tuition, fees, books, and other expenses incurred while studying at LCC. I understand that it is my responsibility to secure enough funding to cover my expenses while studying in the United States. I understand that there are limits to employment while studying in nonimmigrant status and I will not be able to pay for my education by working in the United States. I understand that LCC does not have emergency funds for students whose sponsors fail to provide promised funds.

To comply with USDHS regulations, Lansing Community College is required to verify the availability of funding for tuition, fees, and living expenses for your period of study before issuing a Form I-20 for study in F-1 or M-1 nonimmigrant status. In addition to submitting this form, please submit evidence of liquid funding from all sources (may include bank statements, financial awards, evidence of loans, etc. titles and deeds not accepted). Financial documentation must be in English or include an official English translation. All financial documentation should be dated within 6 months of the program start date.
