

Articulation Agreement
Between
Lansing Community College
And
University of Michigan-Flint School of Management

Lansing Community College and The University of Michigan-Flint School of Management develop this articulation agreement to facilitate the transfer of students who complete courses for a General Associate Degree (see Appendix A for specific courses) at Lansing Community College to a Bachelor of Business Administration degree program at the University of Michigan-Flint. The University of Michigan-Flint is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools-The Higher Learning Commission and is located at 303 E. Kearsley Street, Flint, MI 48502 telephone (810) 762-3300. In addition, the School of Management is an AACSB-International accredited professional business school (Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business). An overview of the university, plus academic information is available at www.umflint.edu. This agreement is intended to clarify the terms and conditions of transfer for students.

Article I

Lansing Community College and the University of Michigan–Flint enter into this agreement as cooperating, equal partners who shall maintain the integrity of their separate programs, while working to ensure a smooth curriculum transition for interested students.

Article II

Lansing Community College and the University of Michigan–Flint agree that any student may transfer any number of semester credit hours of general education and other relevant credit hours earned at Lansing Community College toward a Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) degree at the University of Michigan-Flint, however students are required to complete at least 45 institutional hours at the University of Michigan-Flint. A grade of “C” or better is required of courses for transfer to the University of Michigan-Flint. An Articulation Guide to complete the graduation requirements under this articulation agreement is included in Appendix A. Students should be aware that transfer of credits is also subject to the University of Michigan-Flint policies. Please refer to the catalog for additional information.

Article III

A student must comply with the University of Michigan–Flint requirements for the Bachelor of Business Administration and general education requirements that are in effect at the time the program is selected.

Lansing Community College students under this agreement receive equal consideration with others seeking admission or financial aid.

Article IV

Lansing Community College and the University of Michigan–Flint agree to cooperate in recruiting and supporting students participating in this program and in course delivery. All of the UM-Flint Business Core courses can be taken online. UM-Flint School of Management offers an online upper division BBA program in general business for which online electives can be chosen to complete the general business concentration. Additional information is available at http://www.umflint.edu/som/Undergraduate/programs/bba\_online.htm

Article V

Lansing Community College and the University of Michigan–Flint agree to communicate any curriculum changes or policies that affect the agreed upon relationship. Both parties reserve the right to amend or revise by mutual consent and in writing this agreement or to change the curriculum, whenever feasible.

Lansing Community College will designate an individual who will be responsible for the articulation agreement at Lansing Community College. The University of Michigan–Flint will designate an individual who will be responsible for the articulation agreement at the University of Michigan–Flint.

Lansing Community College and the University of Michigan–Flint will review this agreement every three years and make adjustments as deemed appropriate to maintain the integrity of each institution as well as for the improvement of the transfer process and student articulation. If agreed upon, pending review, a renewal of the agreement may be signed. This agreement will remain in effect until future mutual action is deemed appropriate.

Article VI

Lansing Community College and the University of Michigan–Flint agree to cooperate in communicating with each other and with their common and respective publics concerning the established relationship between the two institutions.

- Any marketing of the articulation in print will be subject to the prior approval of both parties. Each institution will assume responsibility for appropriate marketing to reach their respective student and faculty populations.
- Faculty and staff at both institutions will communicate information about this agreement to students and prospective students.
- LCC may provide at its web site, a link to the University of Michigan-Flint web site.

Article VII

Either Lansing Community College or the University of Michigan–Flint may terminate the agreement by notifying the other party in writing two years in advance. Should the agreement be terminated, any Lansing Community College student who has designated BBA as his or her major and selected courses in this articulation program prior to termination will be allowed to complete the program within a five-year period of time.

Article VIII

Lansing Community College and the University of Michigan–Flint agree to exchange transfer student information for the purpose of monitoring and enhancing student academic success. The information may also be used to enhance curricular offerings. At no time will Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) regulations or requirements be violated.
