

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

For a BACHELOR of SCIENCE in OCCUPATIONAL EDUCATION STUDIES
Between
LANSING COMMUNITY COLLEGE
And
WESTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

Western Michigan University (WMU), through the Division of Continuing Education, agrees to accept courses identified on individual Programs of Work, as set forth in the Addendum, for the occupational education programs offered by Lansing Community College (LCC) into the General University Studies, Occupational Education Studies, Bachelor of Science program. However, students participating in the Occupational Education Studies program must meet the admission requirements of the Western Michigan University teacher education program and maintain the academic standards required of all students enrolled in the WMU teacher education program.

This agreement is based upon the individual Programs of Work (see Addendum) for the following technical programs offered by LCC and approved by the Michigan State Board of Education for vocational endorsements as teachable majors:

Automotive Body Repair, Automotive Technology, CADD/Drafting & Design, Construction (Residential Building), Electrical Technology, Geographic Resource & Environmental Technology, Heating & Air Conditioning, Industrial Technology, Machine Maintenance, Machine Toolmaker, Secondary Education in Business, and Welding Technology.

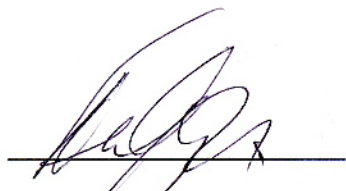

The Community College agrees to provide the necessary information and guidance for their respective students to inform them of the availability of Occupational Education Studies program for continuing education at the baccalaureate level.

When programmatic revisions or state of Michigan teacher certification changes do occur, it will be the responsibility of the Community College or the University initiating the change to promptly inform the other institutions. Notices of these changes shall be sent to the officials signing (below) for each institution. Both institutions will jointly review the changes to determine the required revisions to individual Programs of Work.

Either party to this agreement shall have the right to terminate this agreement upon a one year written notice to the other.
