

*An Agreement to Cooperate between
Spelman College
and
Lansing Community College*

In the interest of increasing and focusing our efforts to build bridges of understanding and cooperation between our two Institutions so that we further encourage African-American youths to complete high school and pursue advanced degrees, and

In the interest of working together to build a strong program that will be unique in nature and respectful of the role and mission of each of our institutions,

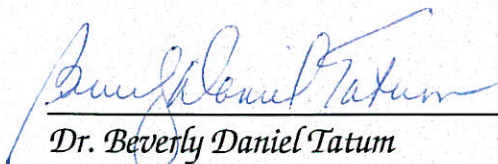

Spelman College and Lansing Community College agree to reaffirm a relationship that was first formalized in 1988, and which facilitates the articulation of courses and the transfer of academic credits, curricula, and instructional materials;

Spelman College and Lansing Community College agree to explore student, faculty, and staff exchange opportunities;

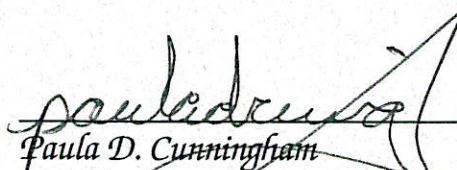

Spelman College and Lansing Community College agree to consider hosting cultural events from each other's College which may enrich or expand educational understanding and experiences of faculty, staff, students, and the community.

This agreement between Spelman College and Lansing Community College formalizes our partnership and directs us to move forward in our commitment to our mission and to our students.

In witness whereof, the signing parties have hereunto set their hands on the 20th day of February 2004.

*Dr. Beverly Daniel Tatum
President
Spelman College
Atlanta, Georgia*

*Paula D. Cunningham
President
Lansing Community College
Lansing, Michigan*