CURRICULUM GUIDE

CDA Credential Training
Certificate of Completion

Curriculum Code: 0921 (Effective Fall 2007 – Summer 2012)

The CDA (Child Development Associate) Credential is a national credential earned by individuals working with children age five and younger in a group child care setting. The curriculum is aligned with the standards issued by the Council for Professional Recognition (CDA). To complete field work requirements, students must be working in a child care setting. The certificate provides the training required for CDA credential assessment. Courses may be applied toward the Child Development Certificate of Achievement or Associate Degree.
