

Position Information*POSTING DETAILS

Job Title	Computer Information Technology Program
Requisition Number	2006572
Responsibilities	The Media, Art, and Information Technologies Department is accepting applications for adjunct faculty to teach in one or more of the follow content areas/software applications: Object Oriented Programming, XML, ASP.NET, VB. Net, C# for Web Applications, Oracle 10g, Java, SQL 2005, Linux/Unix and MS Project. Flexibility to teach day, evening and/or weekend classes
Additional Information
Qualifications	Minimum of Bachelor's Degree in Computer Programming or sotware engineering or closely related field required. Master's Degree Preferred. Industry Level Certification for one or more of the above listed applications required. The candidate must have a minimum of two years recent professional work experience in computer programming. Experience writing structured and object oriented applications. Additional experience with design tools such as flow charts and UML diagrams required. College teaching or professional trainer experience preferred. Must have demonstrated experiences working within a team based environment. Good written and oral communication skills required. The candidate must demonstrate commitment ot work in an academic environment as well as a committment to diversity, continuous improvement, and the community college philosophy.
Special Instructions to Applicants
Division	Business, Media, and Information Technologies Divi
Department	BMIT- Media, Art, Info Tech Dept
Estimated Effective Date of Employment	01-05-2009
Job Open Date	11-19-2008
Job Close Date	Open Until Filled
Job Type	Part-Time
Position Level	Part Time Faculty Schedule
Bargaining Unit	MAHE (Michigan Association for Higher Education)
Position Home Organization
Required Applicant Documents	Resume Cover Letter Please respond to the question: Why do you want to work at LCC?