LANSING COMMUNITY COLLEGE TO HOST
27-HOUR REGISTRATION EVENT
Rock Around the Clock themed event

LANSING, MICH. (July 28, 2009) – Lansing Community College will host a 27-hour registration event on Friday, Aug. 7 from 9 a.m. until noon on Saturday, August 8th at its downtown campus in the Gannon Building, located at 422 North Washington Square.

“Our college is known for its flexible course offerings that fit into students’ schedules,” said Dr. Brent Knight, president of Lansing Community College. “This event takes that flexibility one step further, offering all of our application and registration services under one roof at times that are convenient for everyone.”

During the event, attendees can:

- Apply for admission on-site
- Attend a new student seminar
- Complete skills assessment testing or apply for a waiver to determine course placement
- Learn about how LCC’s credits transfer to four-year institutions
- Meet with financial aid advisors, apply for financial aid and learn about LCC scholarships
- Determine their tuition rate (resident, non-resident, out-of-state/international)
- Register for classes and explore payment options

The event will feature free parking at the LCC parking ramp on Grand Avenue, games, a DJ, live radio remotes by 97.5 NOW FM, Q106.1, 89.7 WLNZ. and special giveaway prizes. For more information about the event, call (517) 483-1957 or visit www.lcc.edu/rock
