LCC Board of Trustees Extends Contract of President Brent Knight

LANSING – At a December 21 meeting, the Lansing Community College Board of Trustees voted to extend the term of President Brent Knight’s contract from 2011 to 2013 and include a provision for retirement pay. The Board’s vote followed its annual evaluation of President Knight. Brent Knight became the sixth president of Lansing Community College on July 1, 2008.

“The Board is pleased with President Knight’s accomplishments over the last 18 months,” said LCC Board Chair Deborah Canja. “He has effectively managed and strengthened college operations, academic programs and student services in the most fiscally challenging time in the college’s history. And he is passionate about ensuring access to a community college education, as evidenced by his desire to not raise tuition.”

“I appreciate the opportunity to continue to lead LCC,” said President Brent Knight. “We have much to do at LCC in the coming months, and I appreciate the confidence of the Board.”
