LCC CQI OFFERS DOUBLE FEATURE JUNE PROGRAMS

Daytime, evening programs provide tips for challenging times

Lansing Community College Capital Quality Initiative (CQI) is offering two June programs to help businesses and individuals during these turbulent economic times. The first, "NetWeaving," will be presented at a CQI Breakfast Meeting on Wednesday, June 17, 2009 at LCC West Campus. Breakfast Buffet, networking and registration is from 7:15-8:00 a.m, program 8:00-9:15 a.m.

"NetWeaving" is a proven tool for business survival and success, regardless of the company size. "NetWeaving" creator Bob Littell will explain the concept and describe how it can work for your business. The concept includes: 1) Strengthening relationships, both with your best existing clients, customers, as well as with your best referral sources; 2) Developing new relationships with potential clients and customers for when times are better; and 3) Expanding your network with existing as well as potential referral sources.

Tickets are $30 per member or $35 per non-member in advance or at the door. For reservations call 517 483-1363 or email tennisj@lcc.edu by Friday, June 12.

The second program, a "Don't Need to Read the Book" book club event, will take place Wednesday, June 17, 2009 at LCC West Campus from 6:00-8:30 p.m. with hors d'oeuvres and beverages served. The program will be presented by Bob Littell, "NetWeaving" creator. The book Littell has selected is Following Through - A Revolutionary New Model for Finishing Whatever You Start by Pete Greider, MEd and Steve Levinson, PhD. According to Littell, follow through is critical to the success of any sales, training, project management or entrepreneurial effort.

The first half hour will be spent with open networking, followed by a brief overview of the NetWeaving concept and the Following Through book. Individual introductions will be followed by break-out groups to discuss topics and questions sent in advance to those who RSVP. Feel free to invite others who might also benefit from attending.

Tickets are: $25.00; $20 if you also register for the CQI breakfast with Bob Littell that morning. For reservations call 517 483-1363 or email tennisj@lcc.edu by Friday, June 12 to receive your course materials in advance.
