LCC TO FEATURE PHOTO EXHIBITS AT “TOURIST IN YOUR OWN TOWN”

Lansing Center to showcase history displays

LANSING – Lansing Community College will display two comprehensive exhibits representing some six decades of pivotal moments and movements in national, Michigan, and local history. The exhibits will be on display at the Lansing Center during “Be a Tourist in Your Own Town” on Saturday, May 30, between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. .

The first exhibit represents nearly six decades of social, cultural, political and historical milestones that mark our history. The exhibit was assembled by a talented Lansing Community College staff to provide an understanding of our past in a colorful, visual and condensed way.

In the second exhibit, Lansing photographer Doug Elbinger has captured dozens of local and nationally recognized figures who have contributed to our history. Many of the photos were taken locally during visits by these notables. They represent more than five decades of history-making individuals.

The exhibits will continue to be on display at the Lansing Center, weekdays, 8 a.m.–5 p.m., following the “Be a Tourist in Your Own Town” event. The exhibits are displayed courtesy of Lansing Entertainment & Public Facilities Authority (LEPFA).
