

LCC's WLNZ 89.7 CELEBRATES SALES OFFICE OPENING AT CITY MARKET

Friday noontime concerts to highlight summer schedule

LANSING – LCC's WLNZ 89.7 FM will celebrate the opening of their new sales office at Lansing City Market from noon–1:00 p.m., Friday, April 17, 2009 with a live broadcast from the City Market Cafe. Friday's premiere of the Grand River Radio Diner will include free live music provided by award-winning singer/songwriter Barb Barton, along with Nobody's Darlin', an all-girl acoustic band. Both entertainers will be performing at the Ten Pound Fiddle that night.

The sales office will be open Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 9:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. with live broadcasts and entertainment on select Fridays between noon and 1:00 p.m. throughout the summer months. The WLNZ sales office will sell LCC Spirit Shop merchandise and serve as a place to buy and sell CDs. Tickets to a variety of Old Town events will also be available. Future plans include the sale of LCC Performing Arts tickets.

“This is a great opportunity for students and residents to come shop at City Market, spend their lunch hour, and enjoy some really great entertainment,” said Dave Downing, WLNZ station manager. “We hope this will become a regular Friday activity on everyone's summer lunchtime calendar.”

The Grand River Radio Diner is an off-shoot of the Grand River Radio Concert Series which takes place at 7 p.m. on the first Wednesday of each month at the Creole Gallery in Old Town.

The City Market offers a variety of locally grown products, including organic produce, plants, fresh fish, and baked goods. The Market is located at the corner of Shiawassee and Cedar Street on the Grand River in downtown Lansing.
