*** LCC FIRST DAYS OF SCHOOL TO POSE TRAFFIC CHALLENGES *****

LANSING – Spring semester at LCC began on January 9, 2010. The beginning of the semester often presents traffic challenges for students and employees.

Helpful hints for students coming to LCC's downtown campus:

- Arrive early. . .as early as 45 minutes ahead!
- To avoid waiting in line for LCC Gannon Ramp parking, try these optional sites:
  - Lot U – Corner of Capitol and Genesee, entrances on Genesee and Seymour
  - Lot F – Lapeer between Capitol and Seymour
  - City of Lansing Ramp – 300 block of North Capitol (limited space available)
  - Lot E -- Accessible parking only (between Arts and Science and TLC Building)
- Students may park in any employee lot after 5 p.m. except Lot G where students can park after 6:30 p.m. These area include:
  - Lot B – Entrance on Schoolcraft between Washington and Capitol
  - Lot D – Capitol and Lapeer
  - Lot G – Entrance on alley between Ionia and Shiawassee Streets
  - Lot H – Entrance on Shiawassee west of fire station
  - Lot J – Entrance on Seymour north of Genesee
  - Lot M – Trinity Lutheran Church (501 W. Saginaw)
- Listen for parking and traffic information on LCC radio 89.7 FM or watch LCC TV for the latest updates.
- Check Twitter and Facebook for updates

- Visit www.lcc.edu/parking/ for detailed information
- Consider alternative routes to the downtown campus
- Carpool
- Use CATA to avoid parking on campus. CATA passes are sold at LCC's Parking and ID Office in the Gannon Building
<http://www.lcc.edu/parking/cata/index.aspx>
- Consider metered parking or free parking (three to four blocks north or west of campus)
- If you need to come to the downtown campus for matters other than attending class, you are encouraged to do so in the afternoon to avoid potential delays and parking problems.
