LCC TRUSTEES TAKE OATH OF OFFICE Board elects new officers

LANSING – At Monday night’s annual Lansing Community College Board of Trustees organizational meeting, three newly-elected board members were officially sworn in. Deborah Canja was sworn in by the Honorable Charles F. Filice; Larry Meyer received the oath of office from the Honorable Thomas Boyd; and Robert E. Proctor was sworn in by the Honorable Donald Allen.

Following the swearing in, the Board of Trustees named Deborah Canja as Board Chair; Edward Woods III as Vice Chair; Larry Meyer as Treasurer; and Robin M. Smith as Secretary.

“I’m excited to continue in my work as chair and, along with my colleagues, to advance the mission of Lansing Community College,” said Canja. “Although we face significant challenges in Michigan, we are confident in our ability to work together toward innovative solutions that benefit students, the community and the state.”
