Evening Advancement Business program students begin their studies with a group of peers with similar goals and interests. They will progress through their general business courses together for four semesters, then finish their studies in individual pathways in additional semesters. This approach builds peer support into the program and the chance to make new friends and business contacts. New groups of students will start both in the Fall and Spring semesters. Some classes will combine two groups of students for even more interaction. Classes taken as a group are as follows.

Enjoy full support

No one goes through the Evening Advancement program alone. The program provides academic advisers, tutors, and success coaches during evening hours right at the LCC East location. Additional services are available at additional times at the downtown campus and online. Students will attend a workshop before their first day of class that explains all of the services that are available and how to be successful as a working student.

Accelerate your program

Your previous college coursework or specialized work experiences may allow you to accelerate completion of an Associate’s degree. Students who have passed college-level courses at another college can request that institution to send an official transcript to the LCC Registrar’s office. LCC will evaluate passed courses for equivalency to LCC courses and will place equivalent courses on your LCC transcript. Courses that fulfill the requirements for a Business degree will not have to be repeated.

Students with specialized work experiences, certifications, or military training can explore Credit for Prior Learning. This program uses various methods to evaluate the equivalency of your prior experience to LCC courses. Experiences that are equivalent are granted as course credit on your LCC transcript. Courses that fulfill the requirements for a Business degree will not have to be repeated.
