CURRICULUM GUIDE

Vascular Technology
Certificate of Completion

Curriculum Code: 1604 (Effective Fall 2015 – Summer 2017)

This certificate includes the instructional component of the preparation that students need to take either the examination by the American Registry for Diagnostic Medical Sonography (ARDMS) or the American Registry of Radiologic Technologists (ARRT). It provides the didactic and applied instruction necessary for students to be competent in the specialty of Vascular Sonography. Students must also seek clinical verification as part of this program.
