Japanese Studies C.C. Pathway

This Certificate of Completion in Japanese Studies provides the beginning and intermediate level Japanese language skills and cross-cultural information for students preparing to transfer to college or university programs, qualifying dual-enrolled high school or home school students, or those seeking to reinforce their own professional Japanese language and cultural competencies. In an increasingly international world economy, holders of this Certificate of Completion in Japanese may improve their employment opportunities, in particular since many Japanese companies have very strong ties to Michigan businesses. Students may apply all courses in this curriculum toward other certificates and/or degrees.
