

Paralegal Post-Bachelor C.A.

Curriculum Code: 0744

Effective: Fall 2019 – Summer 2024

Description

Paralegals/legal assistants, generally work under the supervision of an attorney as authorized by law and adhere to recognized ethical standards and rules of professional responsibility. Paralegals/legal assistants investigate the facts; conduct interviews; perform legal research; analyze substantive and procedural laws; draft appropriate documents including: briefs, pleadings, and other forms. Paralegals/legal assistants possess strong technology and case management skills. Paralegals/legal assistants have a variety of career opportunities in private law firms, governmental agencies, corporations, financial institutions, courts systems, legal aid organizations, and other industries. This program is approved by the American Bar Association (ABA). Paralegals/legal assistants are not authorized to engage in the unauthorized practice of law. Not all courses in this program transfer to all colleges. Students planning to transfer should see an academic advisor before enrolling in any course.

Additional Information

Students following this curriculum must have proof of a bachelor's degree on file and entered on their official Lansing Community College transcript before beginning this curriculum.

Paralegal Program Legal Specialty Courses Transfer Credit Policy*

The Lansing Community College Paralegal Studies Program may award transfer credit for designated, legal specialty courses on a case-by-case basis determined by the Paralegal Studies Program Director, subject to approval of the Dean of the Technical Careers Division. The current Paralegal specialty courses are LEGL 115, LEGL 125, LEGL 210, LEGL 211, LEGL 218, LEGL 225, LEGL 228, LEGL 229 and LEGL 270. The following conditions apply to the transfer of these legal specialty courses:

1. Transfer credit may be awarded for substantially similar courses completed with a grade of "C" or higher in an ABA approved, or other post-secondary academically accredited academic paralegal studies program. To be considered "substantially similar", the course must have incorporated the same or similar topics and assignments as the LCC Paralegal specialty course sought to be credited as evidenced by a catalog description, detailed syllabus, and course reference file.
2. No more than 9 semester credit hours of Paralegal specialty course credit may be earned toward the Paralegal Associate Degree or Paralegal Post-Bachelor Certificate by transfer credit.
3. Transfer credit will not be awarded for LEGL 225 and LEGL 270.

*Notwithstanding the provisions detailed above: in no circumstance will a student be awarded a Paralegal Associate degree or Certificate unless at least 10 hours of Paralegal specialty course work has been completed at LCC in a traditional class format.
