

Transfer

Students planning to transfer to another institution should be aware that universities and colleges differ widely in the courses they accept for transfer. A student planning to transfer should follow the requirements of their intended institution. Other schools' transfer requirements may not satisfy Lansing Community College (LCC) degree requirements. In order to achieve maximum transferability of courses, students should consult with an academic advisor.

For more information about transfer programs, see Transfer Opportunities webpage.

Revised: 01/12/2023