Traditional Dual Enrollment Student Frequently Asked Questions

- FERPA/Release of Information Form

  1. What is FERPA?

     FERPA stands for The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. FERPA is what protects your privacy and prohibits the dispersing of your information to others without your authorization. For more information, visit the LCC Privacy of Student Records page.

  2. Do my parents/guardians have access to my LCC records?

     Parents/guardians do not have access to your LCC records. You may complete the Release of Information form to give your parent/guardian access to your records. This form gives your parent/guardian permission to call to ask questions about your account. They are not able to log in as you, as only you are allowed to know your username and password.

  3. What is the Release of Information Form?

     Completing the online Release of Information form authorizes LCC to discuss your academic/financial information with your designee. In accordance with The Family Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, LCC cannot discuss your academic and/or financial information with your parents, spouse, or guardian without filing out the Release of Information form. By completing this dynamic form, you authorize LCC to discuss this information with your designee. Note: This form can also be used to add, red, remove, or change your designee(s).

  4. Can my parents inquire about my grades, attendance or other information?

     Your parent/guardian can ask about your final grades if you have completed the Release of Information. They cannot receive information about in-progress grades or your attendance. LCC is not officially an attendance-taking institution, so we do not keep a detailed record of your attendance. In-progress grades can only be seen by the teacher and the student.

  5. How do I give my parents/guardians permission to pay my account?

     Due to FERPA, in order for your parents/guardians to be able to make a payment on your account, you would need to complete a Release of Information form.

Class Registration

1. How do I add and drop classes?
   - Dual enrolled students will add and drop courses via the dual enrollment approval form. A new form will be needed for any changes being requested after the initial request.
   - Students will need to look up what courses are available by looking them up in Banner.
   - Log into "myLCC" on our home page, and after logging in select “Banner” in the top right hand corner
     - Tip: Do not use your browser’s back button from this point forward. Instead, use the links provided on the page such as “Return to previous menu” to navigate through the system.
   - Click “Student”
   - Click “Registration”
   - Click “Registration Tasks”
   - Click “Look Up Classes”
   - Select the semester you are wishing to register for and click "Submit"
   - Select the desired “Subject” and click “Course Search”
   - Identify the course and select “View Sections”
   - Look through the various options, making sure to find the course that best fits your needs
   - Copy the blue CRN number down and input it on your dual enrollment along with the "Subj" and "Crse" information (ie, CRN: 12345, BIOL 201)
     - You will also put in the course type (Online, ORT, Face to Face) and the dates of the course on the dual enrollment form.
   - Repeat the process to add additional courses to your schedule
     - You may also select to be put in another section of the class if the first requested course is full.
       - NOTE: The style of teaching will remain the same; an online course can only be replaced with another online course.
• Once all your desired courses have been inputted on your dual enrollment form, you will put in your parent/guardian's information.

• Sign the form and submit.

• Have your parent/guardian check their email to create their account to fill out the student's dual enrollment form

• In the parent/guardian's email, the parent/guardian must click “Click here to complete your section of the form” in order to fill out the form. If the student is still logged in, there will be an error. If this happens, simply log out and redclick the link

• Click “View My Tuition and Fees” to see the full cost of the course(s)

• The link will then take them to the Log In page. They will either log in if they have an account or click “Create new Account.” If they forgot their username or password, they can click on those links at this time as well.

• If they click on “Create New Account” then they simply need to fill out all the information on the account creation page, and they will then be sent an email letting them know their account was created and they need to Activate it

• The parent will then need to click “Activate your account.” This will make it so they can actually use it. Now that they have done that, they need to go back to the ORIGINAL email with the link to complete the form, as they have yet to do that. They will then log in with their newly created username and password, and see the following once they do

• After clicking “Complete this Form,” they will see everything the student filled out. They will then need to scroll down to the parent section (as they cannot edit the student’s section) and fill out their information. They will then select if these courses are for the summer semester or if they are self-paying.

  • If it is a summer course and the parent/guardian is paying for it, they will then sign the form and submit it. The form will then be sent directly to LCC for processing. If it is not a summer course, the parent/guardian will select what School District is responsible for paying for the courses.

    o NOTE: If the parent/guardian is self paying for a non-summer course (fall or spring), they will still select a school district as the school needs to approve the student taking courses on top of their regular high school classes regardless of who is paying.

  • If the course is not a summer course, or the parent/guardian is not paying for the summer course, the parent/guardian will then select what school district is responsible for paying for the classes.

  • The parent/guardian will then sign and submit

• Once the parents submit the form, an email is sent to the high school they selected was responsible for payment. They will receive an email just like the parent’s email, instructing them to complete the form. If the high school has not made a username with Dynamic Forms, they are to follow the exact same steps the parent followed. Once they have their account, they have to complete their section of the form.
Some schools do both Traditional and High School Advantage courses, but the students may be confused as to which courses they are taking as a “Traditional” student and which ones as a “High School Advantage” student. For this reason, counselors have a dropdown box next to each course where they must approve the course as a “Traditional” course. If the student selected a course that is not traditional, the counselor would deny that specific course; this allows us to still use the one form and not make the student resubmit. They must also check a box indicating that the classes being approved are traditional dual enrollment and are not part of LCC’s High School Advantage (NOTE: it’s important to mention that it’s “LCC’s” High School Advantage as some high school’s refer to their individual programs as High School Advantage).

- a. If the high school selects “High School Advantage – Denied” for any course, we will not register the student for that course; even if it’s not an actual high school advantage course, we use this same drop down for denying a course to make things simple right now.

After the school approves the individual classes, they must then complete their payment section. The schools are asked if they are a Non-Public School or not, as Non-Public (private) schools fill out different invoicing information. The school’s invoicing information will then need to be completed based on how they answer that question.

Once the school submits, an email is sent to the dual enrollment email that there is a form for LCC to complete. Once LCC adds the student to their course, an email will be sent to the student’s LCC email to alert them that their form has been processed or denied. The email will include the status of “registered” or “denied” for each class the student put on their form. If denied, it will say why it was denied as well.

- NOTE: If putting multiple classes down, and the student was only able to get into one course, the form would still be approved as we could get them into something. The email sent to the student would tell them which courses they were registered for and which they weren’t. The student should report this back to their counselor.

- It is the student’s responsibility to know what classes they are registered for.
