Taking a Course

Access the “Learning Management System” homepage. An assigned or required training can be launched from the homepage or transcript page.
Click the “Launch” button to start the desired training. A separate window will appear and launch the training.