

POLICY TITLE: VARIABLE CREDIT

I. Purpose

In order to meet specialized needs or demands from business and industry, the College will allow variable credit alternatives for courses whenever appropriate.

II. Scope

This policy may apply to any College course except those courses required in curricula.

III. General

Variable credit alternatives may include, but are not limited to, independent study, directed study, project labs, internships, and special offerings to clients. Proposals for variable credit originate in departments, and are approved by the appropriate divisional staff member.

IV. Responsibility

The College Deans in conjunction with the Instructional Leader in the respective division are responsible for preparing procedures to implement this policy.
