Welcome and set agenda Summary from Fall 2025	5 minutes	Two topics that the group would like to continue working on are needs of student parents and mental health. Denise – student awareness of textbook costs, Ronda – DOT survey,
Input and what issues have you seen that interfere with student success?	30 minutes	Sasha – What has worked well: Tutoring, most books are OER, being able to rent a laptop, calculator, and get Microsoft office through LCC. What hasn't consistently worked well – the online bookstore, sometimes orders do not go through. Food options on campus are very limited. Input from committee – Have we ever talked to the bookstore? No direct connection. History of textbook subcommittee because of cost of textbooks.
Area updates	20 minutes	Elearning is busy with the new semester, West campus is hosting a hiring event. The library is very busy checking out laptops and calculators. Administrators are aware of the food needs. LCC has had discussions with Greater Lansing Food Bank, however, their requirements may not be a good fit for LCC's needs. CTE is working on identifying low or no cost textbook degrees. History club will be selling candy bars, hosting a jeopardy event, movie night and game night. RSO subcommittee is corresponding with
